

RIGHTS YOU ALREADY BELIEVE IN

JULY 2026 VOLUME 2.0

DANI FALESNIK, MS-ATR, LPC, SAS

EXPLORE EVERY ASPECT

Thank you for taking the time to consider these topics. These days, it's easy to find people to disagree with. I'm grateful that you took a moment to find some common ground instead.

Setting aside labels and politics can help simplify some very complicated issues. At our core, most of us want the same things: safety, fairness, freedom, respect, and a chance to build a good life.

I won't tell you what to believe; but if someone tells you something that creates fear, anger, or pressure, take a moment and decide for yourself. You have that right.

If you ever feel torn, come back to these simple questions. You probably already know the answers. Trust your intuition. Trust your sense of fairness. It is part of what helps all of us survive and live together with peace and stillness.

Kind Regards,
Dani Falesnik

CONTENTS

Section	Articles
Basic Freedoms .....	1, 2, 3, 4, 5
Equal Protection Under Law .....	6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12
Freedom of Movement and Belonging .....	13, 14, 15
Family, Property, and Beliefs .....	16, 17, 18
Expression and participation .....	19, 20, 21
Work, Security, and Wellbeing .....	22, 23, 24, 25
Education and Culture .....	26, 27
Responsibility and Limits .....	28, 29, 30

FOREWARD

On December 10, 1948, the General Assembly of the United Nations adopted and proclaimed the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the full text of which appears in the following pages with the accompanying consideration.

PREAMBLE

Whereas recognition of the inherent dignity and of the equal and inalienable rights of all members of the human family is the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world,

Whereas disregard and contempt for human rights have resulted in barbarous acts which have outraged the conscience of mankind, and the advent of a world in which human beings shall enjoy freedom of speech and belief and freedom from fear and want has been proclaimed as the highest aspiration of the common people,

PREAMBLE (CONT)

Whereas it is essential, if man is not to be compelled to have recourse, as a last resort, to rebellion against tyranny and oppression, that human rights should be protected by the rule of law,

Whereas it is essential to promote the development of friendly relations between nations,

Whereas the peoples of the United Nations have in the Charter reaffirmed their faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person and in the equal rights of men and women and have determined to promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom,

Whereas Member States have pledged themselves to achieve, in cooperation with the United Nations, the promotion of universal respect for and observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Whereas a common understanding of these rights and freedoms is of the greatest importance for the full realization of this pledge,

Now, therefore, The General Assembly, Proclaims this Universal Declaration of Human Rights as a common standard of achievement for all peoples and all nations, to the end that every individual and every organ of society, keeping this Declaration constantly in mind, shall strive by teaching and education to promote respect for these rights and freedoms and by progressive measures, national and international, to secure their universal and effective recognition and observance, both among the peoples of Member States themselves and among the peoples of territories under their jurisdiction.

BASIC FREEDOMS

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE FREE?

(CIRCLE ALL THAT APPLY)

Born Free

No Slavery

Born Equal

No Torture

Everyone is born free and equal.
No one should be owned.
No one should be harmed or tortured.

Should this ever change?

EQUAL PROTECTION UNDER LAW

What protections would you want for yourself if you were accused, judged, or treated unfairly?

How much power should the government have over someone's freedom, home, or their reputation?

You deserve legal protection.
The law should apply equally to you.
If your rights are violated, you should have help.
You shouldn't be jailed, exiled, or punished without a real reason.

FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT & BELONGING

If you or your family had to leave your home to stay safe, where should you be allowed to go?

Should everyone have that same option?

You have the right to move freely within your country. You can leave and return. If you are in danger, you have the right to seek safety elsewhere. You have the right to belong to a country.

FAMILY, PROPERTY & BELIEFS

Which choices in your life should belong to you and to no one else?

When, if ever, is it okay for someone to simply take what you own?

Who should make your most intimate life decisions?

You can marry and have a family of your choice, without being forced.

You have the right to own property.

You have the right to practice your faith, have an opinion, just like everyone else.

EXPRESSION & PARTICIPATION

Who should decide what you think about, believe in, or worship?

Should this apply to just you, or everyone?
Even if you don't agree?

Should you ever be forced to join a group or support a cause that does not align with you and your family's values?

You have the right to think and speak freely.
You have the right to disagree with others, even your own government.
You have a right to participate in your government.

WORK, SECURITY & WELLBEING

What does a decent life require?

If you work hard, what are the basic needs you should be able to count on in return?

You have the right to work and support yourself and your family.
Equal work = Equal Pay
You have the right to rest and enjoy time off.
If you work hard, you should have what you need to live: food, shelter, healthcare, support.

EDUCATION & CULTURE

Do your children deserve a good education?

What helps you grow as a person?

You and your family have the right to education.
You have the right to develop new skills.
You have the right to participate in culture, art, and use science.
Your work belongs to you, nobody else.

RESPONSIBILITY & LIMITS

What responsibilities do you have to other people in order for everyone to have freedom and safety?

What should happen to you if you use your freedom to take freedom away from someone else?

When should your rights be limited in order to protect the rights of others?

Rights need structure to exist.
We owe something to each other.
Respect matters.
No one should use their rights to take away someone else's.

ARTICLES 1-30

Article 1

All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights. They are endowed with reason and conscience and should act towards one another in a spirit of brotherhood.

Article 2

Everyone is entitled to all the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration, without distinction of any kind, such as race, colour, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status. Furthermore, no distinction shall be made on the basis of the political, jurisdictional or international status of the country or territory to which a person belongs, whether it be independent, trust, non-self-governing or under any other limitation of sovereignty.

Article 3

Everyone has the right to life, liberty and the security of person.

Article 4

No one shall be held in slavery or servitude; slavery and the slave trade shall be prohibited in all their forms.

Article 5

No one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.

Article 6

Everyone has the right to recognition everywhere as a person before the law.

Article 7

All are equal before the law and are entitled without any discrimination to equal protection of the law. All are entitled to equal protection against any discrimination in violation of this Declaration and against any incitement to such discrimination.

Article 8

Everyone has the right to an effective remedy by the competent national tribunals for acts violating the fundamental rights granted him by the constitution or by law.

Article 9

No one shall be subjected to arbitrary arrest, detention or exile.

Article 10

Everyone is entitled in full equality to a fair and public hearing by an independent and impartial tribunal, in the determination of his rights and obligations and of any criminal charge against him.

Article 11

1. Everyone charged with a penal offence has the right to be presumed innocent until proved guilty according to law in a public trial at which he has had all the guarantees necessary for his defence.
2. No one shall be held guilty of any penal offence on account of any act or omission which did not constitute a penal offence, under national or international law, at the time when it was committed. Nor shall a heavier penalty be imposed than the one that was applicable at the time the penal offence was committed.

Article 12

No one shall be subjected to arbitrary interference with his privacy, family, home or correspondence, nor to attacks upon his honour and reputation. Everyone has the right to the protection of the law against such interference or attacks.

Article 13

1. Everyone has the right to freedom of movement and residence within the borders of each State.

Article 13 (cont.)

2. Everyone has the right to leave any country, including his own, and to return to his country.

Article 14

1. Everyone has the right to seek and to enjoy in other countries asylum from persecution.

2. This right may not be invoked in the case of prosecutions genuinely arising from non-political crimes or from acts contrary to the purposes and principles of the United Nations.

Article 15

1. Everyone has the right to a nationality.

2. No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his nationality nor denied the right to change his nationality.

Article 16

1. Men and women of full age, without any limitation due to race, nationality or religion, have the right to marry and to found a family. They are entitled to equal rights as to marriage, during marriage and at its dissolution.

2. Marriage shall be entered into only with the free and full consent of the intending spouses.

3. The family is the natural and fundamental group unit of society and is entitled to protection by society and the State.

Article 17

1. Everyone has the right to own property alone as well as in association with others.

2. No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his property.

Article 18

Everyone has the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion; this right includes freedom to change his religion or belief, and freedom, either alone or in community with others and in public or private, to manifest his religion or belief in teaching, practice, worship and observance.

Article 19

Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers.

Article 20

1. Everyone has the right to freedom of peaceful assembly and association.
2. No one may be compelled to belong to an association.

Article 21

1. Everyone has the right to take part in the government of his country, directly or through freely chosen representatives.
2. Everyone has the right of equal access to public service in his country.
3. The will of the people shall be the basis of the authority of government; this will shall be expressed in periodic and genuine elections which shall be by universal and equal suffrage and shall be held by secret vote or by equivalent free voting procedures.

Article 22

Everyone, as a member of society, has the right to social security and is entitled to realization, through national effort and international co-operation and in accordance with the organization and resources of each State, of the economic, social and cultural rights indispensable for his dignity and the free development of his personality.

Article 23

1. Everyone has the right to work, to free choice of employment, to just and favourable conditions of work and to protection against unemployment.
2. Everyone, without any discrimination, has the right to equal pay for equal work.

Article 23 (Cont)

3. Everyone who works has the right to just and favourable remuneration ensuring for himself and his family an existence worthy of human dignity, and supplemented, if necessary, by other means of social protection.
4. Everyone has the right to form and to join trade unions for the protection of his interests.

Article 24

Everyone has the right to rest and leisure, including reasonable limitation of working hours and periodic holidays with pay.

Article 25

1. Everyone has the right to a standard of living adequate for the health and well-being of himself and of his family, including food, clothing, housing and medical care and necessary social services, and the right to security in the event of unemployment, sickness, disability, widowhood, old age or other lack of livelihood in circumstances beyond his control.
2. Motherhood and childhood are entitled to special care and assistance. All children, whether born in or out of wedlock, shall enjoy the same social protection.

Article 26

1. Everyone has the right to education. Education shall be free, at least in the elementary and fundamental stages. Elementary education shall be compulsory. Technical and professional education shall be made generally available and higher education shall be equally accessible to all on the basis of merit.
2. Education shall be directed to the full development of the human personality and to the strengthening of respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms. It shall promote understanding, tolerance and friendship among all nations, racial or religious groups, and shall further the activities of the United Nations for the maintenance of peace.

Article 26 (Cont.)

3. Parents have a prior right to choose the kind of education that shall be given to their children.

Article 27

1. Everyone has the right freely to participate in the cultural life of the community, to enjoy the arts and to share in scientific advancement and its benefits.

2. Everyone has the right to the protection of the moral and material interests resulting from any scientific, literary or artistic production of which he is the author.

Article 28

Everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration can be fully realized.

Article 29

1. Everyone has duties to the community in which alone the free and full development of his personality is possible.

2. In the exercise of his rights and freedoms, everyone shall be subject only to such limitations as are determined by law solely for the purpose of securing due recognition and respect for the rights and freedoms of others and of meeting the just requirements of morality, public order and the general welfare in a democratic society.

3. These rights and freedoms may in no case be exercised contrary to the purposes and principles of the United Nations.

Article 30

Nothing in this Declaration may be interpreted as implying for any State, group or person any right to engage in any activity or to perform any act aimed at the destruction of any of the rights and freedoms set forth herein.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Danielle Falesnik holds a master's degree in community counseling and is currently running for sheriff in Winnebago County.

With a deep commitment to social justice, she authored this zine on the Universal Declaration of Human Rights to foster greater understanding and advocacy within her community.

For more information about her campaign and vision, readers can scan the QR code included or visit www.daniforsheriff.com

A SPECIAL THANK YOU

To Sister Jones' Bookless Book Club for unwavering unconditional positive regard and encouraging women in our community to do courageous things.

I am endlessly inspired by each and every one of you, and I am grateful for every positive thing you do for this community and one another. Each and every one of you is a Legend.

To learn more about Sister Jones' Bookless Book Club, please visit their website or use the QR Code
Provided ---->

This publication is completely free of charge to ensure accessibility for all. While no payment is required, donations are warmly accepted and greatly appreciated to help sustain these efforts; contributions can be made directly through her website or by scanning the provided QR code.